C: Nurse Erin Marie Olszewski Describes Gross Medical Malpractice at the Elmhurst Hospital in New York During Covid-19 Crisis (1.10 hour; uploaded July 11, 2020)

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/MlDa2dWYq3av/>

Although this is a long video, it is well worth watching all the way through. This nurse describes in detail the horrific medical malpractice that was responsible for killing most of the patients admitted to Elmhurst (Public) Hospital for Covid-19. For example, many “patients” only had anxiety, not Covid-19, but they were admitted anyway and put onto ventilators that killed them. The hospital was paid, by the government, $13,000 for every person diagnosed with Covid and $39,000 for every patient put on a ventilator. Being a public hospital, this was an “opportunity” to collect funds. There were no ICU doctors on the floor, only Residents (students) and one dentist. Nevertheless, they were practising all kinds of invasive procedures on the patients, and with no knowledge of how to use respirators. Family members were not allowed in the hospital, so Erin tried advocating for the patients, but she was ignored. The majority of patients were Hispanic, Asians and black people and from very poor suburbs. Only half the patients had tested positive for Covid but all patients were put together in the wards and ICU. At the end of the video, Erin cries in despair because a patient she was close to and who was recovering well was deliberately “killed” by the medical staff while she went off duty. She is so discouraged she speaks of leaving the profession.
